Seniors Week: Young at Heart Short Film Programme Screening Daily 1 - 2:15pm : 16 - 20 March 2015

Knit One (Clare Gray) | 10 Mins

Sadie's grief-fuelled knitting obsession transforms her suburban world until there is just one thing left to knit.

The Game (Dir: Larelle Bossi) | 11 Min

Oscar Wilde said that "friends stab you in the front". Two old men meet weekly at the local gardens to do more than just sacrifice their pawns, battle their knights and protect their throne.

Now You See Her (Sarah Steel) | 14 Min

A short film that looks at the issue of the invisibility of older women in modern society through a fairytale lens.

Crumble (Dir: Georgiana Taylor) | 4 Mins

Maebh and her brother have found themselves in the fanciest of restaurants, being served by the fanciest of waiters. But he's got a mouth on him that needs educating. He asks questions that are frankly none of his business.

Waterborne (Dir: Ryan Coonan) | 9.5 mins

A local ranger discovers the true effects of a bacteria that turns not only humans – but animals too – into zombies.

Love Song Devotions (Dir: Amanda Hood) | 7 Min

Love guru Raymond Lamour rules late-night radio, but when his life is turned upside down he has a crisis of faith.

Counsellor (Dir: Venetia Taylor) | 1.5 Mins

'This woman needs help. A very short comedy about regret.'
